15th February 2012
University of Leeds
15:00-17:30

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Listen to, and ask questions of our guest speakers who will draw on their considerable personal success and experience in the fields of interpreting and translation. Get insights into the opportunities which are open to you.

ALUMNI DISCUSSION PANELS:

Discuss interpreting and translation careers with recent graduates from several of the universities in the region and listen to their practical tips for starting out in the fields.

A regional event to enthuse students about some of the exciting career opportunities in interpreting and translation. Find out from employers like the UN, European Parliament and European Commission.

The event is brought to you by the National Networks for Interpreting and Translation, as part of the government's Routes into Languages programme.
